Michael just called me following a conversation with Suzanne about making sure each tribe knows going into the meeting that all 8 are invited for this webinar. I'll add a sentence to the message below that states, "The EPA is also inviting the Tribal Historic Preservation Officers from [list of the 7 other tribes]." Please let me know if anyone has any concerns with this.

Tom, I don't have the THPO list handy, but would recommend ensuring that the Seminole Tribe contacts that sent and were copied on the acceptance of NHPA consultation are included.

Sorry, I hit "send" too soon. One more question...

Are there any members of any of the tribal offices, other than the THPOs, that anyone recommends that we should copy on this email?

Thanks.

Tom

Thanks very much everyone, that makes sense.

Kelly/Rosemary – I may already have the list of THPOs and their emails, but if you have that handy would you re-send please?

The THPO office seems right and can come from the low level.

I thought the plan was to send this to the Tribal Historic Preservation Officers and not the tribal leader? If that's the case (and, totally appropriate, I think for an informational webinar in the THPO's wheelhouse), then I think it can come from the Branch chief level. Others' thoughts?

OK, thanks. If we're sending to Tribal leaders, does it need to come from a level that's higher than a branch chief?

Thanks Matt.

Katie/Suzanne/Eve - The email below is drafted as if we're sending it to a single tribe, and if so that would mean sending 8 emails. Is that the best approach, or is it OK to consolidate it into one email to send all 8 tribes?

Tom,

Here's the revised informational webinar email that should incorporate everyone's comments. Hopefully we can send this out today. I'm not sure what time we should propose on September 22nd or how much time to give for the presentation- both of those depend on who we plan to invite from EPA and the length of the presentation. I'm hoping you, Rosemary, or Kelly can fill that part in. Note that I have drafted the letter with the assumption that we will send a separate outlook invite with a link to Microsoft Teams.

I have a call until 4:15 but can talk after that if you have questions.

Thanks,

Matt
